Admiral George W. Anderson, Chairman
President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board
Room 297
Executive Office Building

Dear George:

Attached please find a copy of the report on measures taken during 1970 to strengthen the security of personnel and installations of the Intelligence Community which are located abroad. Note that in the accompanying letter to Henry Kissinger I am proposing that this report be omitted in the future, because it appears to duplicate material CIA sends to the Board each year.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms
Director
